

2001 HIGHER SCHOOL CERTIFICATE EXAMINATION
Community and Family Studies

Section I (continued)

Part B – 15 marks

Attempt Questions 11–15

Allow about 25 minutes for this part

Answer the questions in the spaces provided.

Question 11 (2 marks)

Identify a special need that a chronically ill person might have, and explain how it can be met.

A chronically ill person might need to be close to a hospital or in hospital to get the medical attention that they need to stay healthy.

Question 12 (2 marks)

Explain ONE ethical guideline/procedure you would follow when conducting qualitative research involving people who are chronically ill.

When people are chronically ill you can use qualitative ~~research~~ research such as: writing a questionnaire or asking them the questions and the chronically ill person giving you an answer and you write it down on the paper.

Question 13 (3 marks)

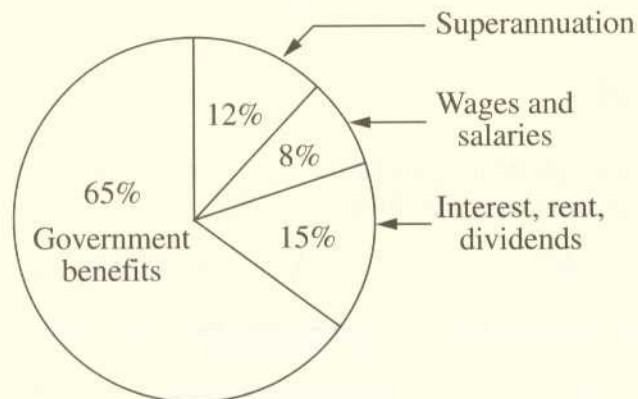

Outline the sequence of steps to be followed when conducting a research project.

Finding a question that you ~~want~~ want to find out about. Then gather all the information you can. If you need to do a survey, type it up and give it to the ~~people~~ people you need too. Then conclude your findings. Put them in a table or write your results down.

Question 14 (4 marks)

Researchers have conducted a study in their local community to investigate the sources of income of aged people.

The results are shown in the graph.

Sources of income of aged people

Account for the data in the graph.

The data in the graph shows us the sources of ~~income~~ income for the aged. The most ~~income source~~ income source for the aged is Government benefits (65%). The less income source for the aged is wages and ~~salaries~~ salaries of 8%.

Question 15 (4 marks)

Describe TWO strategies that parents can use to manage multiple-role expectations arising from work and family commitments.

Family leave - Family leave can be taken for leave if the mother or father who is working ~~can take~~ ^{to take} care of a family problem.

Maternity leave - Is for when a women is pregnant and needs to take time off to have the baby.