

Question 17

Parenting and Caring

Parenting

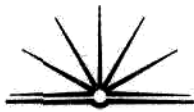

In our society, parenting and caring is a issue in each family and group. Because, between the parent and the child ~~it has~~ is have a harshship. which on the way of parent ^{go out} for work that they can not organisation the time in caring the child that it also, affecting the relationship of the parent.

Firstly, when a woman not have a child before, that they are ~~is~~ help and happy. ~~is~~ want to having a baby, which they through that is good and ~~is~~ is a power in the world. These are truths, But. after they have a child. that can find not the hard ship and difficult in the experience. For example, the responsibilities are increase in ~~the~~ ^{themselves}, when they needs help from friends, grandparent and the social worker. And a woman is not the same as before, that they can go out all the time ~~to~~ with friends and may be stay home look after the child which not success at work ~~and~~ But of course, when your first have a child is that hard. But when you exist on all these problems that you can find out your confidant and successful have a family like this. by all you experience.

Although, when one of the family immigrant from one to other country. that the most influence to they child are by the culture and religion and a parent's work in the different country. that a parent is need to study English to improve the language for work. Because of the different culture and religion. Also, the child is go to the local school that they learn the English more than their parent's language. So between parent and the child is many hard to understand each other. So ~~from~~ the parent is need.

to teach them in a bottle which let them know the ~~of~~ culture.

However, different parents have different experience on the family and caring a child. A parent when they have a baby that they know it is her responsibilities ^{to the family} which they need to do all for the child. Maybe ~~that~~ by this that they can not exist on their own wish and what they want to do. So a parenting responsibilities is a hard to do and guess.
