

Question 17 - Parenting And Caring

(a) Having her first child will give her less time to go out and socialise. She may not be able to work therefore lose the interaction with co-worker. Being her first child and unfamiliar with caring for a child, a woman may want to spend more time at home caring for the child rather than if it were her second.

(b) If a child is raised with different cultural beliefs then other families may not want to interact with them. Some culture may expect only ~~the~~ breastfeeding, not formula. ~~Some~~ Some culture has circumcision, other may have cultural ceremonies. Different foods may be given to the child depending ~~of~~ on the culture.

(c) Although parents may have different traditions of way of bringing a child up, Everyone wants the best for their child and encourage them to grow and become a respected part of society. It is a responsibilities of parents to love and nurture a child. Allow the child to have safety and security, food, shelter

education and everything else they need to live.