

Dancing to a different beat

The dance on ~~mond~~ Monday was a success a huge amount of money was raised for a special car in case you didn't know it was for sudden infant death syndrome or SIDS but on a rather neat there was a fire minor hickups some boys were climbing through the roof and fell through it was a special seen by all and when they were caught it sort of hit the fan the boys were taken out side and no one seen them other than that but since then I court up ~~the~~ with the two boys and this is what they had to say "we were just trying to have a bit of fun at the boring disco and we seen a man hole in the roof so we decide to cheque it out" and as a result of the boys having a bit more fun discos have been ban ~~on~~ until further notice. so we can thank our two climbing friends ~~go~~ no more
