

Total marks – 15
Attempt Questions 1–7

Answer the questions in the spaces provided.

---

In your answers you will be assessed on how well you:

- demonstrate understanding of the relationship between language, text, audience and purpose
-

The Listening Task

You are about to hear part of a program from Radio National entitled The Sports Factor. The program is about rock-climbing in Australia and is presented by Amanda Smith.

Before you hear the recording you will have two minutes to read the questions printed in this paper.

As you are listening to the recording, follow the questions. You may write notes if you wish in the Candidate's Notes spaces provided on pages 2, 3 and 4. Anything you write in the Candidate's Notes spaces will NOT be marked.

You will hear the recording, then the questions will be read aloud. You will hear the recording a SECOND time, and then you will be given time to write the answers.

You now have two minutes to read the questions.

Marks

Question 1 (1 mark)

What is ONE reason people like rock-climbing?

1

This is a passionate outdoor outdoor life style.

.....

Question 2 (2 marks)

Give TWO reasons why the rock-climbers interviewed are not interested in 'traditional, organised sports'.

2

Because he wants to rock-climbing with his techniques, and he doesn't want people feel scare at first time when they are rock-climbing

.....

---

CANDIDATE'S NOTES: These notes will NOT be marked.

terribly

Question 3 (1 mark)

Tick the box that corresponds to the best answer.

Why does Anthony Callaghan believe that women often do better at rock-climbing than men? 1

- (A) Men are stronger than women.
- (B) Women have a better technique for climbing.
- (C) Men can do 100 chin ups.
- (D) Women use their arms more than men.

Question 4 (2 marks)

Why does Amanda Smith talk to a range of people for the program? Give TWO reasons.

Because she wants these experiences give their <sup>2</sup>opinion, and their feeling their experience about rock climbing, and she also wants to advice that rock climbing is a good sport because so many rock climber says that they start rock-climbing when they were young

Question 5 (2 marks)

Describe ONE of the background sounds heard in the program. What is its effect? 2 one of the background sounds is the bird singing. It will give the audience a image of how the landscape of rock-climbing is, it sounds peaceful, relaxing and it also gives the peaceful mood and light-hearted.

Please turn over

---

CANDIDATE'S NOTES: These notes will NOT be marked.

Question 6 (3 marks)

(a) What is ONE purpose of this radio program? 1 to entertain <sup>and inform</sup> the audience, ~~especially to~~

(b) Explain how ONE language feature is used in the program to achieve this purpose. 2

The language, ~~that~~ <sup>has</sup> been using is suitable for every audience, the composer's using colloquial language to express her and rock-climber feeling, with which is logical and easy to follow and the mood of the program is quite peaceful.

Question 7 (4 marks)

Analyse the way this radio program has been composed to engage the audience. 4

The structure and the logical <sup>has</sup> been used to engage the audience. It isn't just the conversation between the interviewer and interviewees, it is also the music, the bird is singing and the rock-climbing constructors <sup>are</sup> teaching their students. It gives the audience images of how good and wonderful of rock-climbing, ~~the~~ <sup>these</sup> gives the audience feel like they are listening to a live show even though it's not spontaneous. The program is easy to follow, the composer's sometime using her enthusiastic and excited tone of voice to interview people, ~~even~~ <sup>even</sup> she offers light-hearted to engage the audience.

End of paper

---

CANDIDATE'S NOTES: These notes will NOT be marked.