

Start here for Question Number: 21

a)

b) Information technology such as road ^{sensors} ~~systems~~ (cameras) and digital imaging technology [↑] are required for the new system.

c) This new method of ~~a~~ installing one digital camera and proving that to be successful, before implementing others across the state is referred to as a 'phased' conversion method as it is a process occurring over time.

d) One social ethical issue relating to the digital red light/speed camera, as opposed from the owner/driver's point of view would be the owner may get a fine for the crime however may ask for ~~a~~ the photo to be sent to him/her to make clear that the photo is their own vehicle and not have another vehicle in the same image.