

Question 9 (10 marks)

How useful would Sources E and F be for a historian studying the different goals of Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Wilson in creating the Treaty of Versailles?

10

In your answer, consider the perspectives provided by the TWO sources and the reliability of each one.

Sources E and F, both primary sources, could prove useful to historians studying the different goals of Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Wilson because Source E provides the French goals and their concern towards the amount of indemnity shown here: 'French are holding out, fearing the amount of indemnity ^{was} seems large now but would seem very small in a few years...'

Source D compliments Source E by saying 'and the extortionate demand put forward by French Ministers for reparation from Germany'. Considering both sources are primary sources ~~to~~ spoken from the thoughts and concerns of the writers, these sources ~~are~~ ~~to~~ ~~reliable~~.
