Question 26 - Improving Performance.

a. A coach has been doing what ~~he~~^{she} coaches for, for many years. He ^{she} has built up a certain state of professionalism in what he does.

When he ^{she} sees someone teaching a skill to someone else, he ^{she} would be able to evaluate the effectiveness of the instruction that is being taught.

He could see how well someone is learning the skill, and if not well he ^{she} would be able to fix up the problem on the spot and teach the skill so it will be learned correctly.
