

Question 26 (3 marks)

Some materials become superconductors when cooled to extremely low temperatures.

3

Identify THREE properties of superconductors.

- experience no electrical resistance when at a temperature below their ~~critical~~ critical temperature
- They are brittle
- Do not allow magnetic fields to penetrate their surface when in their superconductive state