

Question 3 (6 marks)

Name ONE theory of social change Revolutionary.....

With reference to a country you have studied, evaluate how your chosen theory of social change helps you to understand ONE feature of continuity and ONE feature of change within that country.

In America, back in the early 1950's when racial hatred was trying to be demolished by those being discriminated against, segregation started to take place. "Blacks" started being able to drink from the same fountains as "whites", they were allowed to catch the same transport etc. This all took place slowly and over time. This country had a revolutionary change. It gradually began to accept ~~the~~ cultures that it was not familiar with. In all aspects, this was a change for the better. It allowed multiculturalism to take place, it allowed people to see things with a different view, and allowed their country to be the most admired country in the world, one that other ~~east~~ countries look up to, and follow trends.
