Question 1 (6 marks)
(a) Define micro world .	1
..... the personal world explored through personal experience, this is the world most immediate to you, eg. your family, school, area, community etc.
(b) Define macro world .	1
..... the wider world explored much through secondary experience, such as through the media, government etc. this is a world <sup>similarly</sup> experienced by others outside your micro world
(c) Describe how you experience continuity and change in EITHER your micro world OR your macro world.	4
..... In my micro world I experience both continuity + change. I see continuity in the institution of my family - a thing that <sup>has</sup> always been present - for the most part never changing. family serves as a stabilising factor in my micro-world. Change can be seen in my schools <sup>community</sup> in the micro-world - my community is everchanging. with increased high-rise housing, a shift in demographics and community dynamics through suburban migration and the change in retail to adapt to this change in community dynamics - from older generations to newer ones.
