Vietnam has ~~not~~ had ~~change~~ change by influence from other countries so that Vietnam can have a more stable economic structure. One of the influences that has changed Vietnam's tradition is how westernisation has changed the way they live. Money becoming more important than family values and sending children away to work in the city to bring back money for the family. Westernisation has also made Vietnam move ~~fast~~ fast paced and ~~at~~ people in the rural areas moving into the city. Westernisation has come into Vietnam changing some of their aspects of life and what it really means and also bring in ~~the~~ modernisation as well.
