

Start here.

Question 17.

Belief Systems.

Beliefs play a major role in society and represent who people are.

Different people from all different cultures share different thoughts, and beliefs towards people, events, traditions, social gatherings.