23. a) a custom designed solution would be more suitable for the small company as it would meet their specific needs more accuratly.

b) a)

iib) the project management issues that may arise from. the use of this software are ~~that the~~ issues regarding copyright laws. If source codes are readily available to anyone and free of charge then people can copy source code off internets or via developers and then modify it and use it.