

This quotation expresses the distinctive Islamic answer in great extent about human existence.

It shows that the Islamic people turn to god, most Gracious, for guidance through life, and through personal fulfillment.