

Studies of Religion

Section I (continued)

Attempt Question 11

Answer the question in the space provided.

Question 11 (5 marks)

'The churches should act together in all matters except those in which deep differences of conviction compel them to act separately.'

Conference on Faith and Order, 1952

Using the above statement and your own knowledge, describe the impact of Christian ecumenical movements in Australia.

the impact of Christian ecumenical movements in Australia is that the various different religions in Australia should come together and not object to what other religions believe in because they are all a path to God just that they believe some different ethics but they are all a path to God and they are the same just a few differences.