

a) Robert Rauschenberg's relationships to his artworks are that he works on the floor and is near to artworks, literally in them.

Plate 1 shows him silk screen printing in his New York studio on the floor. The subjects in his work are all to do with America as he is American the same subjects are also seen in Plate 2 except that they are in colour.