

b) If you undertake their cause and offer your help to their business, if you are sitting here for this very reason, that their ~~children~~ children, whose goods have been sold may be brought before you, because, by the immortal gods, Iesta new and much more crueler proscription may seem to have been commenced by you.

That previous [proscription], which was directed against those who were able to bear arms, the Senate however failed to adopt, lest the previous custom of our ancestors may seem to have been made by the People's Authority. Therefore unless you reject and spurn from yourselves this which concerns the children and the cradle of their babies, consider by the immortal gods, to what estate do you think the republic will arrive?
