

7b) And At last, Roman citizens, of whom fourty~~part~~ all men try to to dishonour me, of that one, who hates the republic, because he himself wants to conserve it destruction, They are my most bitter enemy, ~~as~~ they are above, those who through their wicked pretence try to befriend me, The third, are those who, with can not achieve anything ~~spoke~~ because they themselves are too lazy, they Their praise and dignity of mine is destroyed, ~~desire~~ ~~praised~~ and ~~dignity~~ to me, The fourth, of those who, ~~with~~ they owe to the guards of the republic, to go to, greet me, Standing Citizens, that designate me to be a military leader) Emperor, which in possession they are to ~~be~~ themselves, they ~~do~~ ~~no~~ have been trading.
