

③. a) i) ~~They~~ ~~discussed~~ ~~who~~ ~~could~~ ~~stay~~ ~~in~~ of the conspirators would stay at Rome, whom Catiline would lead out with him, they discussed and assigned the regions of the city for arson. Generally the details and organisation of the conspiracy

~~(it)~~ were discussed

ii) The meeting was held in the house of Marcus Laeca at night.

iii) The custom of clients greeting their patrons in the morning as a form of respect.

iv) ~~(Cicero's~~ ~~views)~~ Cicero did not have the support of the senate for Catiline's execution and it is ~~(clearly)~~ doubtful that they even supported his exile. Cicero's status as a "homo novus" - a self-made man did not help his position. He thus had to convince Catiline to leave the city since all ~~(his)~~ his plans were known and the whole senate and ^{citizens} the ~~(citizens)~~ ~~(were)~~ were seemingly hostile towards him. Also Cicero hopes that ~~(it)~~ with Catiline's departure to join his army, ~~(it)~~ will come the proof that such a conspiracy has been formed and thus ~~(it)~~ no one will be able to deny it.
