

Start here.

10a) ~~indignum~~ me

b) auribus and oculis

c) <sup>graves</sup> ab amicissimi civitatibus and they have bought "cum publicis ~~actis~~ auctoritatibus" d).

Now this most bold and hateful man understands. He knows I am prepared and to come to the court, so that not only in your ears, but in the eyes of everyone, your thievery and crimes will be (planted) established. You see ~~senators~~ many senators are witness to your boldness; you see many Roman knights frequently among citizens and allies, to whom you yourself have done significant injustices. You even see so many soldiers, from the graves of very close friends and citizens, with public documents have gathered.

Additional writing space on back page.