

Start here.

b) Waste (materials) - they would have to deal with these when they replaced something on a car like if a lightbulb is blown they replace it they have the waste.

Hazardous materials - they would deal with this when changing the oil or coolant, etc in a car so they need somewhere to store it.

Air quality - they would deal with this when having an engine running in the workshop they have to worry about the fumes ~~from~~ from it.